ADVERTISERS.—Advertisements for the Free Democrat, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, are received at the office of the Editor, at No. 100 N. 2nd St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. FREMONT.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WM. L. DAYTON.

FOR ELECTORS,
State at Large, EDWARD D. HOLTON,
TIMOTHY O. HOWE.

Campaign Free Democrat!

From this time till after the Presidential election, we will furnish the Weekly Free Democrat, to single subscribers or to clubs of any number, at fifty cents. And for fifty cents, put any time during the campaign, we will send the Weekly paper to any subscriber for four months from the time of subscribing.

Tri-Weekly, four months, for $1.50.

Daily, " " " " " 2.00.

This promise to be the most exciting political canvass in the history of the nation, and the friends of Freedom and Freedom should appear in it in the most effective manner.

The friends of Freedom and the Free Democrat can do no better service to the cause of Freedom, than by circulating, in the widest manner possible, the Campaign Free Democrat!

By Order of the Committee.

There should be a meeting of our substantial citizens at once, to form a Fremont Club, and take the proper steps to organize thoroughly for the campaign. We have work to do, and as yet we have no organization. Every day's delay is a loss to us. The people are waiting for someone to move in this matter. Let the ball be set in motion at once, and let us have an organization that will command the confidence of the people, and this city will give such a vote for Fremont and Freedom as will astonish the Hunker leaders.

Success is now within our reach, if we will stretch forth our hands resolutely to take it. But we must work. We must raise money to circulate documents and to spread light among the people. Now, to do this we must have organization. And now is the time to begin. Let Milwaukee do her duty, and the State is safe for the Republican cause.

P. S.—Since the above was put in type, the Committee have handed in a call for a meeting at Concert Hall, next Wednesday evening, to organize a Fremont Club. Let all the friends of the Republican cause be on hand.

Buchanan at a Discount.

There have been two Fremont meetings in this city—both largely attended—one in Market Square, and one in Young's Hall. At the last a Young Men's Fremont club was formed.

Last Saturday evening a meeting of the Hunker Democracy to form a Buchanan Club, was called at the Court House, and including Government officers and candidates for office, there were 36 persons, and they were so discouraged, that they dissolved the meeting without a sign. Buchanan has no hold on the people.

True as Gospel.

Mr. Howard, one of the Kansas Commissioners, in a speech at a Fremont ratification meeting, a few days ago, said:

"I assert that if all the tyranny inflicted upon our forefathers, by the Kings of Great Britain, were collected together and multiplied by ten, I could bring facts to prove that the poor settlers in Kansas have endured more than the whole of them."

This is the testimony of one who has made legal investigation of the facts by the authority of Congress.

Stems.—The editor of the Elkhorn Reporter mourns at length because not only Republicans, but Democrats are stopping his paper, because he supports Buchanan and Slavery. He isn't surprised at the Republicans, but that Democrats, to whom he had sold himself, should forsake him, makes him cry out "it is true!"

The Reporter says the Elkhorners have an anti-Southern address on the fourth without any exhibit or collateral. Also that

"Congress has the right to legislate slavery out of the territories, of course it has the same right to legislate slavery into the territories."

By the same reasoning Congress would have the right to legislate theft, robbery and murder into the territories.

"We see a political party presenting candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, selected for the first time from the Free States alone, with the avowed purpose of electing these candidates by suffrages of one part of the Union only to rule over the whole Union. Can it be possible that those who are elected in such a manner can have seriously reflected upon the consequences which must inevitably follow in case of success? Can they have the audacity to believe that our Southern brethren would submit to be governed by such a Chief Magistrate?"

Suppose that the South, having a majority of the electoral votes, should declare that they would only have slaveholders for President and Vice President, and should elect such by their exclusive suffrage to rule over us at the North. Do you think you would submit to it? No, not for a moment. And do you believe that your Southern brethren are less sensitive on this subject than you are, or less jealous of their rights?"

John Quincy Adams and Richard Rush, both from the Free States, were run on one ticket for President and Vice President, in 1828, and were supported by Millard Fillmore, as was William H. Harrison and Francis Granger, in 1840.

Andrew Jackson and John C. Calhoun, both slaveholders and from the Slave States, were supported and elected on the same ticket by the Democratic party. Did the North propose to nullify or secede from the Union on that account? The South, all concede, will vote against Buchanan. Not a Slave State will give its vote to Fremont. Does the Republican party advise the North not to submit if Buchanan is elected? By no means. And yet Millard Fillmore encourages disunion in case the Republican party succeeds, and calls it madness and folly to suppose the South would submit to be governed by Fremont! Superannuated old Fogy! To think of frightening men with the ghost of disunion, for such a cause! The morality and the utility of the speech is only equalled by its insolence and stupidity, and is worthy of the apostate Abolitionist who gave it to the Fugitive Slave Act.

But Millard Fillmore has a worthy competitor in the race of evil, in the candidate of the Slave Democracy, for the Presidency. In reply to an invitation of the Tammany Society of New York James Buchanan returned the following answer:

Wm. L. Dayton, July 10, 1855.

Dear Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 7th inst., in relation to the Republican candidates, and the issue involved in the Presidential election.

The friends of Freedom and the Free Democrat can do no better service to the cause of Freedom, than by circulating, in the widest manner possible, the Campaign Free Democrat!

By Order of the Committee.

By the same reasoning Congress would have the right to legislate theft, robbery and murder into the territories.

Ed. Free Dem.—My communications have been mostly written in haste, and of small dimensions, in the midst of circles, perhaps, not understanding the importance of my reputation. It is generally true, I believe, that the hopes and expectations of the first settlers of any new country, are rather larger than their realizations. And it is well that it is so. Were it not for hope, which opens to the eye bright visions of the future, and offers fair prospects of success to the pioneer, how dark and dreary his way would often be. How few ever take into consideration the realities of the pioneer life. In the first place, the leaving of home and country, the breaking away from all the endearments of the one, and the privileges and responsibilities of the other, traversing a long and weary way, perhaps under untoward circumstances, arriving in a new country, with a roof to shelter from the storm, perhaps living in wagons, until a rude cabin can be erected, and added to these, the hardships and privations incident to the commencement of a new life in a new country; all these require the brightest sunshine of hope and an unwavering confidence in the care and protection of the Great Father of All, to encourage and sustain. Surely, the true pioneer has a just claim upon our sympathy and our respect.

It is a fact, that this new and interesting territory is fast filling up, with enterprising and intelligent people. An eastern person will hardly credit the fact that for the months of May and June (it was asserted by those who took pains to keep an account) the number of covered wagons that passed through our road would average 31 a day. One day 73 were counted. On our way here, we came past a colony from Massachusetts. They had the minister, school teacher, mechanics, physician, merchant, milliner and dressmaker; also a quantity of cattle, horses, sheep, hogs, &c. Their intention was to settle in townships, and they have lost all the material to commence a society, with all its privileges and responsibilities. A week or two ago, my husband, myself and some others, took a short excursion and on our way, found a colony from New Hampshire. They have a beautiful location in Dodge county. They were from Claremont in New Hampshire, and have given the same name to their new town. They have all erected their cabins on the same side of the road, not far from each other, while the opposite is all enclosed in one field, and cultivated. It is really astonishing to see how many villages are already springing up all over the territory. Elkhorn is situated near the line that separates Minnesota from Iowa. It is quite a thriving little village, but I am sorry to say that the demon intemperance has an altar erected here, where "daily sacrifices" are offered, and this too, while a territorial law is in force upon the statutes, forbidding the sale of intoxicating drinks. The ladies however, I was told by one of their number formerly from Maine, have had a meeting, and resolved to take the business into their own hands, after giving the proprietor of the grog shop a sufficient time to stop his nefarious trade, if he does not see fit to accede to their wishes. And who can blame them? Surely this fair land should be kept from the curse of alcohol.

Rochester, the shire town of Olmsted Co., is situated on the south branch of the Tumbago, in the bosom of a beautiful valley, and is surrounded by high hills, from which are afforded some of the finest views in the territory. It is 35 miles from the Wabashon, on the Mississippi, and is said to possess great advantages for becoming a city. It is surrounded by a good agricultural country, has one of the best water powers in the territory, with two waterfalls, quite picturesque, and to my eye, is one of the most desirable locations I have seen. Buildings are daily going up, and it begins to assume quite a town-like appearance.

Mantorville, 15 miles west of Rochester, is another branch of the Tumbago, and the county seat of Dodge Co. This town is surrounded by hills, on three sides, and on the other by high, rocky cliffs, crowned with beautiful pines. Here is a grist-mill, saw-mill, four stores, mechanic's shops, a large stone hotel in process of completion, and other buildings are constantly being erected. A gentleman gave me a few statistics the other day, which may be interesting to some of the readers of the Democrat. Said he "two years ago last April, 12 men habited at this place (Mantorville) to make claims. They were the only white men in the country. Not a house, not a shanty was erected in the country. The next year, on the Fourth of July, 55, 500 men assembled at the same place, to hold a claim meeting, and after their business was accomplished, they celebrated as well as they could under existing circumstances, our nation's birthday. This they did by raising on one of the tallest oaks, for the American flag, an old blanket belonging to a Sioux Indian. And now," said he, "our country numbers 2,500." This is thought a low estimate, by some, and undoubtedly is. Two years ago, the nearest postoffice was at Duorath, in Iowa, eighty miles off. Now there are four postoffices in the country. But I am sorry to say, that such are the postoffice arrangements that they are calculated to try the patience of those who are residents, as well as the transient visitor, especially at this time, when such stirring scenes are being enacted in Kansas and at Washington, and the liberty loving of our common country, are bestirring themselves nobly in the cause of freedom. Never before have I realized the advantages of railroads and telegraphs.

Before coming to Minnesota, I often heard objections raised against it, on account of its being in too high a latitude. But if the good people of Wisconsin have warmer weather than we have here, I pity them. The thermometer has, several days, indicated the heat at 100°, and from 90° to 95° a good share of the time for months of June. They have had no frosts here, in Wisconsin, and the prospects, with regard to wild fruits, are rich. There has been abundance of genial showers, and the crops look beautifully. In my next, I will give an account of St. Paul and its surroundings.

Yours Respectfully,

ROSALINA.

MR. EDITOR.—Saturday evening last was a proud time for the cause of Freedom in Whitewater. Pursuant to a call signed by eighty of our best known and most influential citizens, some six hundred people assembled at Metropolitan Hall, for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of the Philadelphia Convention, and forming a Fremont Club.

Hon. J. K. Pike was called to the Chair, and John L. Partridge was appointed Secretary. The Chair appointed a Committee consisting of H. J. Curtiss, Esq., Hon. Solomon Wakeley and Hon. Rufus Cheney to draft a constitution for a permanent organization.

While the committee were out, G. B. Noble, Esq., being loudly called for, came forward and made one of the ablest political speeches I have ever been privileged to listen to. He placed John C. Fremont before the people in his true light—upon the broad national platform that reaches from Maine to Georgia, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific. His arguments were clear, concise and convincing. The speech lasted about an hour and a half, after which the committee reported a constitution for the Whitewater Fremont Club, and the meeting proceeded to elect the following officers:

President—Hon. Solomon Wakeley.

Vice President—Hon. J. K. Pike.

Secretary—J. A. Leonard.

Corresponding Sec.—H. J. Curtiss, Esq.

Treasurer—Alva Graham.

Executive Committee—Wm. De Wolf, J. S. Partridge, D. S. Cook, T. Bassett and M. E. Conger.

The Whitewater Band played during the evening, in their best manner.

The meeting adjourned with three cheers for Fremont, three for G. B. Noble and three for the Whitewater Band. You may put Whitewater down for 250 majority for John C. Fremont.

J. S. PARTRIDGE, Secretary.

Waukesha County Fremont Club Meeting.

At a meeting of the Waukesha County Fremont Club at the Court House, in Waukesha, on Saturday, June 12th, a Committee consisting of Wm. Daves, W. D. Bacon, H. N. Davis, of Waukesha, A. R. Hickey, of Eagle, and Dr. Lewis, of Oconomowoc, was appointed to prepare a constitution for said club, and report an adjourned meeting, to be held at the Court House in Waukesha, Friday July 15th, at 3 o'clock P. M. All citizens of Waukesha interested in such organization are invited, and expected to attend.

The following resolution was adopted:

Dr. Hall, an eminent physician of London, gives instructions for the resuscitation of persons apparently drowned, totally at variance with the new methods now in use. He says: "There is one great impediment to the restoration of the function of respiration, which is the falling back of the tongue across the top of the glottis, or entrance into the windpipe. In order to remove this, the patient is to be upon his face and breast, and the body is to be turned slowly on the side, and then returned slowly to its former position. The motion, whose effect is to cause a considerable amount of air in the lungs to be expelled and respiration is to be kept up until breathing is restored, or all hopes of resuscitation from this source are abandoned."

It was followed by Hon. A. CHAPPEL, A. S. PITCHARD, Esq., Hon. S. W. BARNES, Chief Engineer, O. F. BLOUNT, Superintendent, Mr. Decker and others.

The Ashtabula (Ohio) Sentinel, says that wild pigs have abounded in that quarter for some time past, and are now spreading over the whole country, in fields and gardens, eating anything the farmer can get. They are as tame as the common pigeon or dove, and sportsmen scarcely think it worth while to shoot at them.

Col. FREMONT'S letter of acceptance is the best written political letter which has appeared for years. It is frank, explicit, manly, and in suggestions in regard to our foreign policy and our open diplomacy, is eminently worthy of the man. It is the most truly Republican document that has been produced during the campaign.

JOHN VAN BUREN, in a recent speech at Tammany, undertook to swallow all his Free Soil preaches of 1848-9, at which our neighbors of the News, having gone through the same experience, is so delighted that he publishes it and laps his hands. A single echo.
